

WORK HARD, HAVE FUN, MAKE HISTORY!

Help to shape the future of Amazon in Germany.

Do you see a clear path where others see roadblocks? Would you rather break the mold to do something right than settle for the status quo? What if you could use your creativity to change the direction of the entire transportation and delivery sector to raise the bar on customer experience?

In Rheinberg (North-Rhine-Westphalia) we are looking for a

Transportation Project Manager (m/f)

Amazon.de is looking for a customer-focused, detail-oriented, experienced Project Manager. As a Project Manager, you will be responsible for defining and implementing a product vision that meets our customer's needs while satisfying performance and budget goals.

Tasks:

- Project Managers drive strategy, prioritize projects and feature sets, evaluate and set stakeholders expectations. This requires interaction with Amazon's global operations team; you will work closely with business analysts to drive the collection and implementation of requirements, ensure alignment with corporate objectives and contractual obligations and manage the lifecycle of various initiatives
- You will write and review business cases, perform supporting research and analysis, write specifications, and drive the product development schedule from design to release
- Liaising and collaborating with external partners will also require negotiation skills
- Successful candidates will be excellent communicators, highly motivated and effective within distributed teams

Basic qualifications:

- Candidates must be able to think and act both strategically and tactically
- Strong oral and written communication skills are crucial, as well as ability to think clearly, analyze quantitatively, problem-solve, support scope of requirements and prioritize
- Sound business judgment, proven ability to influence others, and strong analytical thinking skills are critical to success in this position
- Proven track record of delivering projects within scope, time, budget and quality
- 3+ years of Project Management experience in a related industry
- A bachelor's degree (or equivalent) is required
- Advanced Excel skills required
- An entrepreneurial mindset, with the tenacity to develop ideas independently and thrive in fast-paced environment is crucial.
- Fluency in German and English is required
- Proficiency in SQL is desired
